

Guests will find that they are treated to some lovely views that stretch across to the Wrekin and the Stretton Hills. Indeed, many regard this area of the country as 'little Switzerland', and as you would expect, the walking is excellent.

Shropshire is a beautiful county, which is becoming more and more popular with tourists. The relaxed pace of countryside life is complemented by a huge amount to see and do.

The Ironbridge Gorge Museum is a fascinating day out for all the family and provides an insight into the history of the Industrial Revolution. The County is home to many old towns and villages, such as MuchAround ten miles away lies the delightful market town of Shrewsbury, which offers many shops, restaurants and historic buildings of interest. Also, Bridgnorth where you can visit The Severn Valley Railway and RAF Cosford. If you wish to eat out then there are several restaurants nearby. The farm is ideal as a touring base for the Midlands, the northwest, mid Wales and even the resorts of North Wales. If you wish to explore further afield or if you need a little retail therapy, then Morrells Wood Farm is only 6 miles from the M54 and less than an hour from the magnificent city of Birmingham. Historic Chester is within easy reach and is a must for any visitor to the area, while Liverpool and Manchester are only a little further. Morrells Wood Farm is ideally suited to anyone wishing to experience Shropshire.

The properties are available all year and short breaks can be booked by arrangement.

MORRELLS WOOD FARM, situated just five miles from historic Ironbridge, is a family run, working cattle and sheep farm that provides the perfect base for a self-catering holiday.

Four 4 star cottages are available for short breaks and holidays throughout the year. The Cornhouse, Rickyard Cottage, The Byre and The Dairy are barn conversions that have retained many of the buildings' original features. The farm, dating back to the 1600's, and the buildings are set around a delightful open courtyard and boast original brickwork and wooden beams. They have been tastefully appointed to offer all the modern facilities you may require. On-site parking is available and freshly baked cakes await you on arrival.

Accommodation comprises of a double bedroom, shower room and a spacious open-plan kitchen/diner/lounge with digital tv, with a fitted kitchen housing a fridge, washing machine and microwave.

The Cornhouse is a beautiful two bedroom cottage. Again, great care has been taken to convert this to its original look. Features include inglenook fireplace with log burner and oak beams, with beautiful, panoramic views of Shropshire. The properties enjoy a peaceful rural setting, where guests can relax and get away from it all and enjoy the peace and tranquillity down on the farm. The surrounding open countryside is perfect for those wishing to experience excellent walking and there are many footpaths on the doorstep to explore in this area of outstanding natural beauty.

The Shepherd's Hut is a truly unique holiday cottage, it is a bespoke hand-made, timber-built, fully insulated hut on wheels. Set in a picturesque Shropshire farmyard location this unusual Ironbridge holiday cottage provides two distinct areas of accommodation, the bedroom/living area and the kitchen/shower rooms which are only 5 yards apart. There is a stunning view of the majestic Wrekin Hill and its lovely surrounding farm lands.

Our latest editions to Morrells Wood Farm, Ironbridge are the 'Shepherd's Retreat' and the 'Shepherd's Rest', slightly larger glamping versions of the Shepherd's Hut. These bespoke hand-made, timber-built huts are unique holiday cottages in a tranquil Shropshire woodland setting, situated in the former rams patch.

All 3 of these huts also have a wood burning stove for those chilly Winter nights and brick built BBQs for dining alfresco, whatever the weather.
